HUD also offers a range of assistance to senior citizens and those with disabilities, including how to stay in your home and seek new housing. Call (202) 708-1112 or visit www.hud.gov/topics/information\_for\_senior\_citizens.

Marketplace Health Insurance – Plans

Enroll in a plan at www.healthcare.gov or through your state’s exchange. Open enrollment is typically in November-December. You may have options to get covered outside of that period: Medicaid and the Children’s Health Insurance Program (CHIP) do not have restricted enrollment periods. Others can enroll through the year due to job or income changes, health, marital status, citizenship, and other life changes. Visit www.healthcare.gov/screener for special enrollment questions.

Marketplace Health Insurance – Subsidies

Individuals and families earning too much for Medicaid and up to four times the poverty level are eligible for tax credits, or subsidies, enabling them to purchase insurance.

Medicaid

Health insurance program for low-income and high-need people. Children, senior citizens, blind people, disabled people, and those people eligible for federally assisted income-maintenance payments may receive Medicaid benefits. www.medicaid.gov. Starting in 2014, Medicaid coverage was expanded to cover people earning up to 138% of the poverty level, in 2012 calculated at $31,809 for a family of four and $15,415 for a single person. However, Medicaid’s expansion under the ACA differs across states.

Medicare

Health insurance program for people age 65+, some under 65 with disabilities, and people with End-stage Renal Disease. Medicare consists of Hospital Insurance (Part A), for which most do not pay, and Medical Insurance (Part B), for which most people pay monthly. If you are already receiving Social Security benefits, you are automatically enrolled in Medicare the month you turn 65. To apply, call (800) MEDICARE or (800) 325-0778 (TTY), or visit www.ssa.gov/benefits/ssi/ or www.medicare.gov.
